INTERVIEW WITH JOKHA AL-HARITHI

On January 14th, selected students of AIWAC, namely Fathima Fahmi and Mahboobah K got a chance to interview the 2019 Man Booker Prize awardee Jokha Al Harithi at the University of Calicut. She is the first Arab to win the Man Booker Prize for her novel "Celestial Bodies".

The students interviewed her, asking her a questionnaire of almost ten questions. In her answers, she expressed her happiness upon receiving the award, explained how she started her writing career, what inspired her to write the novel "Celestial Bodies" and many more. She also said how the Oman government supports such writers and how the women's writings had been starting to popularize, paving them huge ways to success.
