PALLIATIVE CARE PROGRAMME

On January 15, palliative care day is observed all across kerala. Palliative care is specialized medical care for people living with a serious illness. This type of care is focused on providing relief from the symptoms and stress of the illness. The goal is to improve quality of life for both the patient and the family.

On this day, UNITY Palliative Care Clinic Morayoor has conducted a programme. The students from our college have participated in this programme.
