Pledge on Human Rights Day

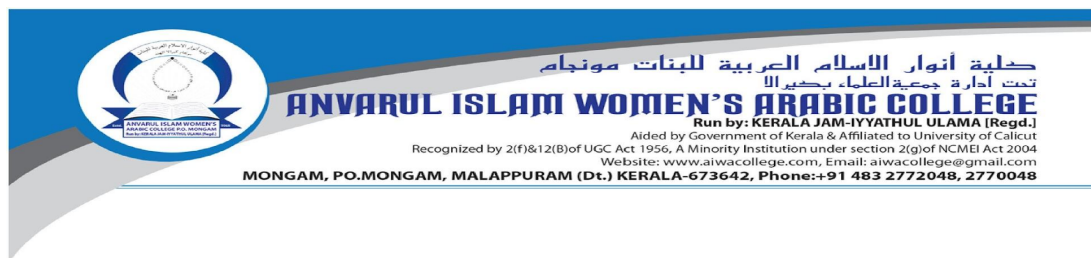

Human Rights Day is observed every year on 10th December. Human Rights Day is celebrated across the globe by formally organising exhibitions, political conferences, meetings, cultural events and many other programs to advocate for human rights' awareness. Students union of Anvarul Islam Womens Arabic College celebrated by taking a pledge on womens rights. The pledge was led by union chairperson Mahboobah K. After the pledge, Head Department of English and renowned family counselor Prof. K. P Sahad delivered a speech in connection with "Human Rights Day". He deliberately noted consequences and issues facing the women community all over the world. He mentioned some tips and self defence strategies against the violence facing the women. The student's community were actively interfered in the discussion with their doubts. The programme concluded with the vote of thanks of student's editor Anfida Febin.
