WORKSHOP ON ENGLISH LANGUAGE & LITERATURE

2017 marks the 70th anniversary of Indian independence. In 1817, the month of October, English teaching was started in Calcutta by gathering together a few Brahmin male children both by British educationalists and Indians. Today, in 2017 we need to celebrate the 200th year of English education in India. The programme intended little-known facts that October 5th is not only International Teachers Day but also Indian English Day. On behalf of it on October 5th 2017 Workshop on English Language and Literature was conducted in our college. The welcome speech was done by Dr. K. T. Shakeeb (IQAC coordinator). The inaugural speech was done by the principal Dr. Ummul Hasanath Puthenchery. Prof. Sahad K.P., the HOD of the English department was the resource person. Faysala KC (staff secretary) facilitated the program. Vote of thanks was done by T.C. Rajiya Mavatha.
